Local Country Shows

Agricultural shows and fairs in Yorkshire celebrate rural heritage.

Events like the Great Yorkshire Show and North Yorkshire County Show highlight farming excellence, traditional skills, and community spirit.

These gatherings preserve countryside traditions while fostering innovation in agriculture and rural life.

To visit a Country Show or village fayre, see those available locally at VisitThirsk.uk/countrysows

Copywrong at Shandy Hall

Exhibition of work by A T Kabe Wilson, artist, experimental poet, archival scholar.

Copywrong reimagines Graham Greene's 'The Tenth Man' by physically altering a copy of the novel to reflect its themes of identity and the power of documents.

The exhibition also previews Kabe's new portrait series, 'Honourmastics'. Drawing on Sterne's fascination with naming, Kabe will unveil the first Honourmastic of a fictional figure: Tristram Shandy, honouring Shandy Hall's literary legacy.

Sat 9 May-Sat 22 Aug at Shandy Hall, Coxwold, York YO61 4AD. Free entry. launcestertrust.org.uk/event

Monk Park Farm's Little Thirsk

At Monk Park Farm, Little Thirsk is a fully immersive indoor role play village designed especially for younger visitors. Children can step into a miniature world inspired by local businesses and community life, encouraging imaginative play, creativity, and hands-on fun.

The new space provides a brilliant all-weather attraction, giving families even more to enjoy during their visit, whatever the season. With thoughtfully designed play areas and familiar touches inspired by the local area, Little Thirsk adds a unique and engaging experience to the farm and is included as part of the standard farm admission, alongside Monk Park Farm's much loved attractions including animal encounters, outdoor play areas, and seasonal events.
